"ROOSEVELTISM" HAS
CHARMED THE PEOPLESenator Depew Says President Will Succeed Himself.

CHICAGO, June 5.—W. H. Vanderbilt, Senator Chauncey M. Depew, H. McK. Twombly, brother-in-law of William K. Vanderbilt, and J. C. Fargo, president of the American Express Company, arrived in Chicago Wednesday to attend the annual meeting of the directors of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, and later departed for the East.

"President Roosevelt is making the most audacious campaign in American political history," said Senator Depew. "It is not a campaign of Republicanism, but of Rooseveltism. It has charmed the people. The people prefer an impulsive man who occasionally goes wrong to a crafty man who never makes mistakes. Roosevelt is the exponent of the popular side of the trust question. The fact that he has antagonized Wall Street has endeared him to the people."

"Strikes are a healthful economic sign. There are never any strikes in hard times. The business situation never seemed more hopeful for everything that tends toward stability, order and prosperity."

Senator Depew said President Roosevelt will be nominated by acclamation, and be elected by the largest majority ever returned by an electoral college. He will be accorded the privilege, said the Senator, of naming his running mate on the ticket, and the Vice Presidential candidate will probably hail from the Middle West or the Pacific Coast. Judge Parker, of New York, Senator Depew thought, would be the candidate of the Democrats.

ARTISTS BEFRIEND
BEREAVED FAMILY

PARIS, June 5.—A splendid example of the generosity of French artists was witnessed yesterday, when five hundred pictures, studies and drawings, given to the widow and daughter of the painter, M. Laguerre, were put up at the Petit Gallery. The total realized by the first sale was more than $9,000. The best price received was $1,000 for a head, by M. Bouguereau. M. Thaulow came next, with a landscape for $980. Many other numbers sold for $200 to $400 each. There will be two more sales.

HISSES BY BANKERS
GREET A GOVERNORWest Virginia Association Shows Displeasure.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 5.—Gov. A. B. White was hissed long, loud, and repeatedly last night when responding to a toast at the banquet of the West Virginia Bankers' Association. He was a guest of the association, and had been placed upon the list of speakers, he said, without consultation.

In the course of his remarks he referred to the Bankers' Association sending a committee to the Legislature to oppose passage of the tax commission's report. His first reference brought forth hisses.

The governor reddened and his voice trembled as he proceeded and referred to the bankers of West Virginia as "tax dodgers" because their organization had opposed what he considered a fair tax on banks. At his mention of "tax dodgers," he was again hissed.

He grew more earnest in his remarks, and said he proposed to speak plain Anglo-Saxon. He said he was a director in several banks, but not one that he knew of paid the proper amount of tax required to be paid under the present statute. For the third time he was hissed.

He said he saw no reason why banks should avoid the payment of tax, completed his speech and sat down amid cheers and hisses.

NEWS OF ROCKVILLE.

ROCKVILLE, Md., June 5.—Dr. William A. Caldwell, formerly of Washington, but now of this place, is critically ill at his home here of consumption. A few years ago Dr. Caldwell was lecturer at the State University of West Virginia at Morgantown. He has been to the Adirondacks and other resorts, hoping thereby to improve his physical ailment, and about two years was so improved that he resumed the practice of his profession in Washington, but in a short while he found he had to retire, the work to which he was subject not being conducive to his health. His wife and daughter constitute his household here.

A petition of about forty citizens of this town was presented to the town council at its regular meeting Wednesday, asking that some arrangement be made by which the electric railroad can again come into the town. The petition was laid aside for future action, but it is understood from several members of the council that no action will be taken.

VIENNA POLICE DENY
KNOWING OF ZINNER CASE

VIENNA, June 5.—The detention at Ellis Island, New York, of an alleged fugitive from justice, a Vienna advocate named Zinner, has brought forth several conflicting reports regarding him. The police deny any knowledge of the affair, but according to a circumstantial report, Mr. Zinner is being held in consequence of a cablegram sent by Marcus Braun, a United States emigrant inspector, who is now investigating emigration condition in Austria-Hungary and Russia, at the request of the chief of the Vienna police. Zinner cabled yesterday to friends here for a remittance of a thousand dollars to enable him to fight the case against him, failing which, he said, his deportation would be certain.

BOY, KILLING GIRL,
FLEES TO THE WOODS

SHARON, Pa., June 5.—After accidentally killing his playmate, Mary Monroe, Mark Cunningham, ten years old, fled to the woods and cannot be found. Cunningham was playing with a 22-caliber rifle in the rear of the Catholic Church, at Sharpsville, when it was discharged, the bullet entering the girl's right side and passing through the lung.

SPEAKEASY CHARGE AGAINST POLITICIANS

PITTSBURGH, June 5.—A constable yesterday afternoon returned Select Councilman P. J. Donahue, Dockmaster John Koch and Edward Schmershall, charging that they sold liquor illegally in the ward. The return was at once sent to the grand jury. Donahue is a member of select council from the fourth ward, and Koch was recently appointed master at the famous Flynn wharf, in the Allegheny River.

WIRE KILLS LINEMAN ON WEDDING EVE

READING, Pa., June 5.—Oscar White, a lineman, while fastening a feed wire on the top of an eighty-foot pole yesterday came in contact with a live wire. He fell across the wire and slowly roasted to death. When he was lowered to the ground life was found to be extinct. His clothing was burned from his body. White was engaged to be married to a young Reading woman next week. He hailed from Richmond, Va., and was twenty years old.

FATHER AND SONS
SLAIN BY COWBOYSBattle Due to Cutting Wire Fence in Kansas.

McCOOK, Neb., June 5.—Meager details have been received from St. Francis, Kan., of a battle between cowboys employed by the De War Cattle Company and a family named Berry, in which Berry and three of his four sons were killed and the fourth son seriously wounded.

Land had been taken up by Mr. Berry as a homestead. The fences of the cattle company interfered with his passage to and from the roads. Wire cutting by the Berry family to get the shortest road to town is said to have been the cause of the quarrel. The cowboys had threatened to kill the family.

The fight occurred after a recent trip of the Berry family to town. The father and four sons were returning to their home. Eight miles from their destination they stopped to cut their way through a wire fence. The cowboys came upon them just as they completed the work.

MAD DOG MADE OLD
PEDDLERS YOUNG AGAIN

MAHANAOY CITY, Pa., June 5.—Two Arabian peddlers, bent with age and their wares, forgot their ills in a ten-minute sprint to escape the fangs of a mad dog at Buck Mountain yesterday. They found refuge up a tree. Meantime the dog bit six fellow-mongrels, four pigs and a horse, then escaped to the mountains with the populace at its heels.

DEAD SPANIARDS' BONES STOLEN FOR RELICS

VICTORIA, B. C., June 5.—Advice from Manila tell of a disgraceful act of vandalism on the part of the visitors to the recently floated Spanish cruiser Reina Christina, sunk by Admiral Dewey, in the surreptitious removal of bones of dead Spaniards for relics. The Christina was thought to have had some $200,000 in gold on board, but it was not found. The gunboat Velasco, which was raised, was found to have been sunk by her own crew, which had opened the bilge.

MOTHER'S DREAM OF GOLD COMES TRUE

RED BUD, Ill., June 5.—Excitement has been caused here by August Wilhelm's finding gold on his farm, two and one-half miles northeast of Red Bud. He discovered particles of gold, and sent a quantity to an assayer at St. Louis. The news came yesterday that the ore ran $102 to the ton. This discovery verifies a prediction made by Wilhelm's mother, years ago. She dreamed there was gold on the farm, and prophesied that at some future time the gold would be discovered in paying veins.

GIRL BRANDS BOY WITH HOT IRONS, HE SAYS

SHARON, Pa., June 5.—Henry Washington and Cora Bolen, his sister-in-law, aged sixteen years, both negroes, were committed to jail yesterday without bail for causing the death of Willie, the six-year-old son of the former. The father declared that his other son, James, aged seven, threw a shoe at Willie, causing fatal injuries. James denied the story and said Cora Bolen had pounded the boy over the head with a poker. James said Cora burned his legs, arms, head and body with hot irons and once set Willie on a red-hot stove. The boy's leg was swathed in bandages and he said the girl had held a red-hot iron against the flesh. Threats of lynching were freely made, but the crowd lacked a leader.

INVITED MASKED MEN TO HELP THEMSELVES

CHICAGO, June 5.—Two masked men, armed with revolvers, robbed W. L. Flynn and five patrons who were in his saloon, 295 Seminary Avenue, of $150 and their watches late Wednesday night. When the highwaymen entered Flynn's the customers were seated at a table and he was standing behind one of them. Thinking that a joke was in progress, Flynn responded to the demand "Hands up!" with an invitation to the intruders to help themselves.

JACKSON SHERIFF REMOVED.

JACKSON, Ky., June 5.—The motion to remove Sheriff Ed Callahan was granted yesterday, and Judge Redwine appointed John Jones. Jones is at present deputy sheriff, and is the only deputy not objected to by the prosecution in the assassination cases. The jury will be drawn from Morgan county.

CADDIE BOY SAW
HEFFERNAN SLAYERRudolph Brerely Corroborates Story of Sarah Campbell.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., June 5.—There was an important development in the Heffernan murder case last night when Rudolph Brerely, a caddie boy at the Ardsley Club, was brought forth by Coroner Russell as a witness to the shooting, and his testimony completely cleared the Ardsley Club and nearby residents of all connection with the murder and also apparently proves that Coroner Russell has been right in his opinion that it was the sequel of a highway robbery.

The reason the boy has been quiet is that his mother ordered him to keep his lips closed. He came home the night of the murder, and told her all about it. This is his story:

"I missed my train, as I had been playing with the rabbits at the clubhouse. I went down to the station to get the 9:28 train, and got there about ten minutes to nine. I saw the Campbell woman get off the train and saw Heffernan meet her. They walked up the path toward Hewitt's place, and a few minutes later I saw a man sneak up on the other side of the tracks and cross over. Then I heard the pistol shots, and ran away because I was afraid."

The boy's description of the man tallies with that given by Sarah Campbell.

OSSIFIED MAN SUPPORTS
WIFE AND SIX CHILDREN

INDIANAPOLIS, June 5.—Eli Green, the famous North Jackson ossified man, who declines to be a museum freak and supports himself and his wife and six children by selling candy, fruit, cigars and newspapers, is still in good health. His flesh is growing harder. He feels no sensation when his body is punctured with a knife. Doctors from all over the world have experimented with him, and he was once baked in an oven, for several hours, in an effort to cure him. Green was attacked three days after working in a field in a rain. He felt a binding and pressing sensation all over his body. While in a hot bath he noticed the hardening of the flesh on his arms and hands, and eventually the ossification spread from his neck to his feet. He has no use of his fingers.

POPE LEO'S HEALTH IS SLOWLY FAILING

LONDON, June 5.—A pathetic picture of Pope Leo XIII in his declining days is painted by the Rome correspondent of the "Pall Mall Gazette," who writes: "Those who have seen the Pope lately say the difference is not so much in his capacity to accomplish as in his desire. He is as wakeful at night, but now very seldom rises from his bed to compose Latin poems or to write and study, and those who watch over him have been surprised that this spring he never once said he would like to go into the garden. The real truth is that Pope Leo, when not giving private audiences—and they are now made as short as possible—is usually resting, which means half sleeping, sometimes almost degenerating into coma."

"CO-ED" COMPANIONS
DROWN TOGETHER

CHICAGO, June 5.—Jesse Miller, a medical student at the University of Chicago, and Frances E. Moore, a "co-ed" in the same institution, died together yesterday morning beneath the hull of the Columbus caravel in Jackson Park. Whether the affair is double suicide or an accident, the police are unable to determine. After renting a small boat they rowed in the direction of the Spanish boat. Miss Moore's hat and umbrella were found on the deck of the Pinta. One theory is that Miss Moore slipped on the deck and fell overboard, and that Miller, attempting a rescue, plunged after her. They were found with arms tightly clasped about each other's neck.

STRIKERS LET HOTEL
GUESTS GO HUNGRY

CHICAGO, June 5.—When the two cafes in the Grand Pacific Hotel were filled with hungry men and women, many in evening clothes, about 8 o'clock yesterday evening, the dusky waiters took off their jackets, the chambermaids put on street attire, the bartenders, the elevator boys, the porters and the cooks quit, and the big hotel could give nothing to guests but beds, which they will have to make up themselves today. Two hundred and fifty employees, members of various unions amalgamated under the name of Hotel and Restaurant Employees' Union, walked out to enforce demands for 15 per cent increase in wages and shorter hours. Bellboys, engineers and clerks were the only employees who remained on duty.
